AFDI-GDLN Global Knowledge Sharing Series on Anti-Covid-19:
Webinar 4: ACCA Covid-19 global survey: inside business
– impacts and responses

Date & Time: 15:00-16:00 (Beijing time, UTC+8), 8 May 2020

Objectives: The webinar shares results from ACCA global member and stakeholder survey which ran between 13 March 2020 – 26 March 2020 on Covid-19. The objectives of this webinar are to understand: the business and financial impact on organizations so far and their short to medium term implications; the measures being undertaken and considered by organizations to mitigate the impact of Covid-19; early lessons learnt to support preparedness for the future: what should or can organizations think off in response to this issue? how can we manage our organizations through this crisis?

Guest Speaker: Jamie Lyon, Head of Business Management, Professional Insights, ACCA

Jamie leads ACCA's cutting-edge insights programme that explores the implications and opportunities presented by advancing digital technologies in the CFO function, as well as having oversight of ACCA's global research programme on corporate governance, enterprise risk management, business transformation and issues impacting smaller and medium sized businesses in the profession.

By working in collaboration with employers, governments and regulators across the world, he and his team of experts produce thought-provoking, practical and accessible advice and insight on the most pressing issues impacting the business environment. Jamie has extensive experience in financial management, corporate transformation, risk management and talent development. He is an FCCA.
